AK 49er's Wire Submission Requirements and Guidelines

Mission Statement:

The purpose of the AK 49er's wire is for the timely sharing of current club information with a very narrow focus designed to advertise and promote the activities, events, people, achievements, and needs of its club members and officers. Any club member may submit a posting for consideration, board members may have their own banner to write under. Book, gun or movie reviews and other similar articles are also acceptable. Articles outside of this mission statement are not eligible for publication.

2. All submissions must be of a positive nature, that puts the club, it's activities and efforts, its officers and members in a good light, regardless of subject.
3. Articles of an editorial nature or "opinions" are strictly forbidden...
Examples of unacceptable topics include, but are not limited to, "your version of how the game should be played, how it use to be, etc." or anything that may be offensive or controversial to ANY ONE of our members as deemed by the web master.
4. Articles are not allowed that contain very specific data on hand loading of ammunition, example: specific amounts of powder. General data like bullet weights, case sizing and technique, etc. are OK.
5. Articles must be no larger than one 8 1/2 x 11 page, at least 12 pic in character size. Please include pictures, video and artwork when possible. Email to Tombstone Kenny at keepsake@keepsakephotography.net
6. The web master reserves the right to reject in part or whole any submission that does not conform with these guidelines, and to edit or rewrite anything to improve readability or clarity.

Forbidden References

1. Any articles containing inappropriate references or any generalizations about the following will not be posted: Age, race, politics, religion, sex, drugs, or alcohol.
2. Articles that contain sarcasm, negative, or critical references of others are strictly forbidden.
